20 IN REVERE RACKET TRIAL ARE DEFAULTED

Twenty of 50 defendants, including Patrolman William C. Gibson, former member of the Revere vice squad, defaulted today in superior court when the Revere racket case was called for trial.

After he had been recorded with the others in default, however, Patrolman Gibson telephoned the courthouse, explaining that he had been detained and would report this afternoon.

In a courtroom jammed with defendants, 19 attorneys, prosecution counsel and witnesses—leaving little room for spectators—Judge Allan G. Butterick ruled that the first case to be tried would be that involving the North Shore Club, in a converted garage.

In this case 24 defendants, including former Mayor James M. O'Brien, Police Chief Edward J. Tighe and Police Lieut. Henry Tracy, another former member of the vice squad, are named in indictments charging conspiracy to set up and maintain a gambling nuisance.

There were 12 defendants defaulted in this case, while the other 12, including O'Brien, Tighe and Tracy answered and pleaded not guilty.

The other nine who pleaded not guilty with these three were Peter Hedstrom, alias Peter Stone and Big Peter; Sam Langford, Bernard McGarry, Joseph Cortese, alias Little Bozo and Big Bozo; Joseph Gauthier, William L. O'Brien, John Procus, Max Gorfein and Thomas O'Connell.

Listed as defaulters in the North Shore Garage case were Patrolman Gibson, Joseph Chira, Frank De Maio, Robert McCormack, Jacob Leckovitz, John Morton, Julius Goldstein, Samuel P. Brickman, Charles Goldberg, Joseph Brooke John Doe and Richard Roe.

CONSPIRACY TRIAL WAITS

To be tried later are other indictments, in which former Mayor O'Brien, Police Chief Tighe, Lieutenant Tracy and Patrolman Gibson are charged with conspiring with others to set up and maintain gaming nuisances at the Ruby Club and other Revere spots.

In this second list of indictments the following pleaded not guilty:

Michael Kingsley, who also is a material witness in the Louis Gaeta slaying; Joseph Cordillo, Hy-

He was also held in $100, personal recognizance, on a charge of assault and battery on a third boy pupil.

The case was continued to Thursday, Woodbridge withholding his plea. He was arrested on complaint of the parents of the boys.

Woodbridge's home is in Walnut Hill road, Newton Highlands.

Potter Palmer Near Death After Brawl

SARASOTA, Fla., May 15 (AP)—Hospital attaches disclosed today that young Potter D'Orsay Palmer, oft-married scion of a wealthy Chicago and Sarasota family, is in critical condition from injuries received in an altercation at Bradenton.

Officials here did not have a report on the incident, but acquaintances said young Palmer was injured at a Bradenton junior chamber of commerce picnic Thursday night.

Dr. David R. Kennedy said Palmer had suffered a cerebral hemmorrhage and might not survive through the day.

Palmer's forehead was badly bruised from what Dr. Kennedy described as "a terrific blow."

Young Palmer's fourth wife, the former Pluma Louise Lowery Attatiello, who worked in a roadside eating place until their surprise marriage last December, was at the hospital as were his socially prominent parents, Mr. and Mrs. Honore Palmer.

Scars Win Divorce for Young Wife

Showing scars she said were left on her face by beatings she suffered at hands of her husband, attractive young Mrs. Etta Louise Duchini of Dorchester avenue, Dorchester, won an uncontested divorce today in Suffolk probate court.

She told Judge Frederick J. Dillon her husband's punches cut her eye open, lacerated her forehead and gashed the bridge of her nose. Most of the quarrels, she said, were over money, her husband, Louis, refusing to account for what he did with his $60 a week salary.

Judge Dillon awarded her $6 a week alimony and right to resume her maiden name, Maguire.

Big Dog Kills Boy, 4, Teasing Small Dog

LAWTON, Okla., May 15 (AP)—A large dog killed 4-year-old Raymond Gene Smith on a farm near here yesterday apparently because the boy teased a smaller dog.

Mrs. Fern Smith said her son had put a burlap sack over the smaller dog's head and it yelped excitedly. She beat off the big dog, which she said was shaking her son "like a rat," but the boy died 45 minutes later from loss of blood.

ROYAL SHIP IN SIGHT OF LAND

ABOARD EMPRESS OF AUSTRALIA, May 15 (Canadian Press)—The liner Empress of Australia, carrying King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, came in sight of land today.

The southern end of Newfoundland was sighted at 7:30 a. m. (E. D. T.) and a few minutes later the French islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon came into view.

The islands were discernible to the northwest through telescopes on the bridge of the Empress.

It was the 10th day of the voyage from England, lengthened two days by fog which held the ship at a virtual standstill in the iceberg region of the North Atlantic from Thursday until yesterday.

SHIP SPEEDS UP

The liner, which had been scheduled to dock at Quebec today and now is due to land her royal passengers Wednesday morning, has been "stepping on it" since last night.

She did 19 knots during most of the night after emerging from the fog and ploughing yesterday through thick fields of ice. At 2 a. m. (Boston time) she passed 50 miles south of Cape Race, easterly tip of Newfoundland.

Given good weather, she was ex-

GUNS HALT 3000 PICKETS AT HARLAN; MINER SLUGGED

HARLAN, Ky., May 15 (AP)—Claude Howard of Baxter, a carpenter for the Harlan-Wallins mine, was clubbed over the head with a pistol by a national guardsman today in the first clash between coal miners and state troops protecting workers returning to the pits.

Howard said he was stopped by a trooper whom he told that he (Howard) was en route to his home but the militiaman refused to allow him to cross a guarded bridge and in an argument struck him across the head inflicting a deep gash.

Col. Roy W. Easley of the National Guard said he had received reports that Howard backed into a soldier with his automobile and attempted to run down another trooper when he was struck.

Considerable excitement was caused when a small roadster was brought in from the country with five bullet holes in the windshield. First reports said shots had been fired at the driver but an investigation by the military revealed several boys had fired the shots from

ROBERT TAYLOR AND BARBARA STANWYCK
Their Screen Love Becomes Real Love, Marriage

Bob Taylor's Bridal Kisses To Other Girl

HOLLYWOOD, May 15 (AP)—Robert Taylor, the idol of many a feminine heart who was married over the week-end to Barbara Stanwyck in a surprise elopement to San Diego, bemoaned his lot as an actor today.

"Here I am married," he complained, "and I've got to be back to work making love to another woman."

Taylor is working with Hedy Lamarr in a film production, and as soon as that is finished must go on location to Payette Lake, Idaho, for another picture. Miss Stanwyck is busy making a picture at another studio.

Hedy Lamarr

"We can't possibly honeymoon until some time next summer," they said.

The couple disclosed to newspapermen that they decided to be married two weeks ago.

"We simply took the first free moment we had for the ceremony," they explained.

San Diego Municipal Judge Phil Smith performed the ceremony in the living room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whalen, long-time friends of the couple.

The pair arrived just before midnight Saturday, but neither Taylor nor Miss Stanwyck wanted to begin married life under the auspices of the hoodoo number—May 13th—so the ceremony began at 12:20 a. m. yesterday. It lasted just five minutes.

The marriage was the first for Taylor. Miss Stanwyck obtained a divorce three years ago from Frank Fay, also an actor. She has custody of their adopted son, Dion, now enrolled in a Los Angeles military school.

"We'll live on my ranch for the time being," Miss Stanwyck said. "I don't know where we'll live ultimately. Perhaps we'll sell my home or Bob's, or perhaps we'll sell both of them and build a new house."

ROBERTA JONAY
Daddy's Girl

CHICAGO, May 15 (INS) — Roberta Jonay's heart still belongs only to her daddy.

The lissome young dancer, who once so enchanted President and Mrs. Roosevelt that they extended to her the hospitality of the White House, made this clear today in denying reports she was engaged to Martin Jurow, 29, a theatrical manager.

"I sent daddy a wire telling him I wasn't engaged to Martin or anyone else," she said.

MOTHER'S STORY OF GIRL'S LEAP AFTER LOVE QUARREL

A grief-stricken mother today told the story of young love—so intense, so desperately important—which caused her 16-year-old daughter to leap in an agony of despair from the window of their Roxbury home yesterday.

The girl, Laura Nickerson, is in City Hospital, her condition grave. Her head was severely injured when she plunged to the sidewalk from the Nickerson home in Howes street. And Mrs. Eva Nickerson, the mother, hasn't left her bedside.

"Laura," she said, "is a good girl.

"About four years ago she met Gilbert McQuarry, who lives a block or so away in Dale street.

"He's a good boy, too — I've known his mother for years.

HER PARENTS QUARREL

"They started to go together, and lately, have been seeing each other as often as four nights a week. There was no talk of marriage—yet. They're too young. My husband disapproved of the boy and—well, we quarreled over it, he and I, and he went away."

She hesitated, then went on:

"He was here last night—Lester, my husband—and I thought we might be together again, but he didn't stay."

Again a pause. Then—

"A little while ago one of Gilbert's friends came back from a CCC camp, and they've been going out together. I don't think Laura liked it much. There were some things—you know how boys are when they want to pretend they're grown up.

"Laura told him he'd have to stop. They quarreled, and she was miserable. Then, Saturday night, they went out together again. She came home early—alone. She was crying.

PLUNGES OUT WINDOW

"She told me: 'Mother, dear, I love him so much, but I've broken up with him. I'll never see him again.' I comforted her as best I could, and she went to bed.

"Yesterday morning she said she didn't feel like going to church. I knew how badly she felt, and didn't insist. When I came home she said: 'Look, mother, here's something I've got it for you—it's Mother's Day. And she gave me a box with three little linen handkerchiefs.

"The next I knew she walked to the window and plunged out."

Sobs ended the story.

Doctors fear Laura may have a laceration of the brain. She is in a coma most of the time, and when she isn't, she talks a little wildly about her broken romance. But it isn't broken at all.

Gilbert was at the hospital last night, talking to her, trying to get her to speak to him.

He wants to tell her he is sorry, and ask her to forgive him.

Oh, Deer Me! Milkman Gets Kicked in Pants

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 15 (AP)—Milkman Emil Riedel's ordinarily placid rounds were enlivened with an adventure at dawn today: He fought and subdued a deer in a customer's backyard.

"It looked at me with big brown eyes," he related, "and I glared back, hoping to scare it away. Then it attacked me. I grabbed it by the antlers, and somehow it kicked me in the pants.

"I guess I was wounded in the arm, too."

Neighborhood boys rushed to the fray, helped Riedel truss the deer with a clothesline. The milkman telephoned to the Zoo, then salvaged unbroken bottles and resumed the even tenor of his life.

Girl Mother Only 5 Marvel To Doctors; Baby Is Normal

LIMA, Peru, May 15 (AP)—An Indian girl said by physicians to be five years old has given birth to a six-pound baby at the Lima maternity hospital—to the amazement of 60 physician witnesses.

The baby, a boy, was delivered in a 35-minute Caesarean operation yesterday. The infant was said to be well-formed and today both the child and his mother were reported by the hospital to be in excellent condition.

The Caesarean was performed by Dr. Gerardo Lozada and Dr. Alejandro Busalleu. Among the 60 spectators was a commission of physicians preparing a report on the amazing case of precocious motherhood.

The child mother, Linda Medina, was born Sept. 23, 1934, according to her parents, and that is the date on her birth certificate.

But Dr. Hipolito Larrabure, chief surgeon and director of the Lima Maternity Hospital, said the birth certificate apparently was in error, because Lina still has her milk teeth and the molars are just emerging—the dental status of a child more than five but under six years of age.

He said it had been impossible to determine who had assaulted the child.

The mother reported that Lina started to show signs of development when she was only three months old.

Told of the child's expected motherhood, the mother voiced Indian superstitions.

"She believed her daughter was a victim of the 'evil eye' or possessed by a snake called 'Tiracha' which, according to the Indians, is able to impregnate women sleeping in the open air," Dr. Larrabure said.

"The Indians also believe that women may get pregnant if they see a rainbow coming from a spring."

Gynecologists feared that natural delivery of the baby would be too dangerous, if not impossible, for the little girl and so decided to operate after 8½ months.

Four days ago Lina was brought here from Pisco. She weighed 32 kilograms (70.55 pounds). The exact weight of her child was 2.7 kilograms (5.96 pounds).

BOBBY AND PEGGY BICKERSTAFFE
Saved by Dad in Roxbury Home Blaze

Mother Who Saved Four Children Has Fractured Spine

A heroic West Roxbury mother was in critical condition at Faulkner Hospital today, victim of a fractured spine in the thrilling rescue of her four little children from flaming death.

She is Mrs. Robert Bickerstaffe of Landseer street, who dropped her children to the safety of their father's arms. Then she plunged to the ground from a sunporch roof.

The father, Robert Bickerstaffe, was awakened by the barking of the family's collie dog. The entire first floor was flames, cutting off escape over stairways.

He first rushed to the bedroom of the nine-months-old son, David, and made his way to the sunporch roof.

Mrs. Bickerstaffe, also aroused, had gathered the other three children from their bedrooms—Robert, Jr., 12; Peggy, 10, and Carol, five. She followed her husband to the sunporch roof and saw him leap 15 feet to the ground.

Barely visible to her through the thick clouds of smoke, Bickerstaffe shouted directions to his wife to drop the children from the roof into his arms.

FALL BROKEN

Mrs. Bickerstaffe first dropped Carol, who was caught safely in her father's arms. Little Peggy, terrified as flames blazed up from the lower floor, jumped from the roof, her father managing to break her fall. Young Robert climbed part way down, hung by his hands from the roof, and then jumped, his fall also being broken by his father.

The mother then flung the baby, David, and the father rushed forward and caught him safely in his arms.

As tongues of flame blazed up to her feet, the mother then either lost her balance and fell or leaped quickly to escape the flames.

Bickerstaffe, with the baby in his arms, was unable to reach his wife and break her fall. She plunged to the ground, falling heavily on her back. She was unconscious when her husband reached her side.

DOG SAVED

As the children and their mother were being aided to the home of nearby neighbor, Mrs. Peter Ryan of Landseer st., Bickerstaffe rushed to the cellar of his flaming home, crashed open a window, and rescued the dog whose warning barks had given the alarm which saved all their lives.

Mrs. Bickerstaffe was treated at Mrs. Ryan's home by Dr. Marion Wilkerson, and then removed to Faulkner Hospital. Ex-rays disclosed a fractured spine. The mother's name was placed on the danger list, and physicians said her condition was critical.

Clearing up the charred wreckage Bickerstaffe later told of the peril and terror of the rescue.

SEE PRINTS AS PUTNAM CASE CLUE

HOLLYWOOD, May 15 (INS)—With the elimination today of a possible "mystery woman," police placed their main reliance on four fingerprints for solution of the mysterious kidnaping of George P. Putnam, prominent book publisher and widower of the late Amelia Earhart.

Examination of Putnam's automobile, in which he said he was driven 100 miles north to Bakersfield after two German speaking men kidnaped him at his North Hollywood home Friday night, disclosed that an effort had been made to scrub fingerprints from all surfaces of the car.

Four fingerprints were found on the rear view mirror and a door, providing what investigators hoped would be the first tangible clue in the puzzling case.

The machine was recovered about a mile from the partly constructed house in Bakersfield, where the publisher's abductors abandoned him, securely bound and gagged.

Hopes had been placed on seven lip-stained cigarette stubs found in the car. A chemist's report, however, stated examination disclosed the red smears were too old to be connected with the case.

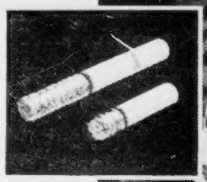
SEEING IS BELIEVING!



Now... circus folks, too, are comparing cigarettes this strikingly convincing way...

"JUST watch 'em burn," is the advice smart smokers are giving on cigarettes these days. At the right, aerial ace Everett White of the Ringling Bros.-Barnum & Bailey circus proves that one leading cigarette burns slower than other brands. The famous star of the high trapeze, Ed Rooney, observes that the winning brand is C-A-M-E-L! Camel's big advantage is in its costlier tobaccos, expertly blended in a cigarette made to burn slowly, completely!

Recently, a group of scientists made this interesting laboratory test on a bigger scale. 16 of the largest-selling cigarette brands were tested impartially. CAMELS BURNED SLOWER THAN ANY OTHER BRAND TESTED—25% SLOWER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME FOR THE OTHER BRANDS. (Camels were remarkably consistent. Cigarettes of some brands smoked twice as fast as others right from the same pack.) IN THE SAME TEST, CAMELS HELD THEIR ASH FAR LONGER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME FOR ALL THE OTHER BRANDS.

Camel is the cigarette of costlier tobaccos...always slow-burning, cool, mild, with a delightful taste!

Everyone watches Everett White, the daring aerialist (center), intently, as Camels win in his cigarette test. He remarks: "Camel smokers know Camels smoke COOLER and MILDER. And any smoker can see one reason why! Look how much slower that Camel burns! And, say, notice how the Camel ash stays on!"

SMOKING IS BELIEVING!

Camel's slower burning (compared to the average time of the 15 other brands tested) gives you the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack! You economize while enjoying smoking pleasure at its best!

IF you feel that life owes you a little more fun, try a cigarette made with costlier tobaccos...a Camel! See how Camel's delightful fragrance and taste can brighten you up. Camels are amazingly mild. Cool...easy on your throat...really a matchless blend.

Camels have more tobacco by weight than the average of the 15 other brands tested. Besides, Camels burn slower than any of those other brands. And by burning 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands, Camels give you the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack!

Camels give you even more for your money when you count in Camel's finer, more expensive tobaccos. Buy shrewdly! Buy Camels ... America's first choice for a luxury smoke every smoker can afford!

Runaway Answers Mother's Prayers

Back to the principal's office today went Arthur Robert Marshall, 14, of Poplar street, Malden, who ended an impromptu vacation from school and returned home almost as if in response to the prayers of his mother and her scores of friends on Mother's Day.

The auburn-haired lad, well known in Malden as a church choir singer, was missing nearly a week. In several Malden churches, prayers were offered for his safe return. A short time later, he reappeard.

To begin at the beginning, Arthur had some trouble in school on Tuesday and decided to leave home. It wasn't serious trouble but to him it seemed so. He went to Revere Beach and got a job in one of the stands that paid him 35 cents. That night he hitchhiked first to Salem, and then to Exeter, N. H.

Being well wearied of his travels he went to the rear door of a factory where he saw John Gauche, a watchman, and asked for permission to sleep there that night.

Having two children of his own, Gauche, the watchman, couldn't refuse. Next day young Marshall went to Epping, N. H., where he obtained work on a chicken farm, tough work for a choir singer.

But if you think a boy with golden hair and a soprano voice is a sissy ask Marshall's schoolmates. They call him "Slugger" Marshall. He worked Wednesday and Thursday at the farm and on Friday he went back to Exeter and appealed to his new-found friend Gauche to put him up again for the night. This time Gauche was convinced he was a runaway and took him to his home, keeping a watchful eye on him.

On Saturday when Gauche was looking at his favorite newspaper he came across the boy's picture on page 8 and a story telling how his sorrowing mother was calling for her missing son. It was late and Gauche let the matter rest that night. But yesterday morning he whispered to a state trooper, the latter communicated with the Malden police and a few hours later young Marshall was home.

Gilbert, Sullivan Star Dead at 63

NEW YORK, May 15 (AP)—Frank Moulan, 63, whose characterizations in Gilbert and Sullivan operettas delighted audiences for 40 years is dead. His best-known role was Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner in "The Mikado."

He first appeared on the New York stage in 1897 as a member of the Castle Square Opera Company of Boston, playing Don Quixote in "The Queen's Lace Handkerchief."

Sunshine Asks Daddy's $6,000,000

NEW YORK, May 15 (INS)—On the theory that $3,000,000 is nice, but $6,000,000 is nicer, Dorothy (Sunshine) Browning Hood will demand the entire estate of her late benefactor, Edward W. (Daddy) Browning, this week.

She is now sure of half of it, but Daddy tied up the other half in the "Edward W. Browning Foundation," a fantastic trust fund designed to give out six annual awards "to such men and women throughtout the world who shall have accomplished the best preeminent result" in a variety of ways, including prevention of cruelty to children and "spreading of the gospel under Protestant auspices."

Surrogate Delehanty has upheld the trust fund, and the state appellate division has upheld the surrogate.

Dorothy's attorney, Daniel A. Shirk, will go to Albany early this week to place the matter before the court of appeals. He says that "Daddy" Browning was not interested in helping humanity, but in promoting "his own name, and the publicity which he adored during his lifetime."

Dorothy's plea will be opposed by the Title Guarantee & Trust Co.

Launch Move to Balk Arrest of Patriarca

A move to prevent reimprisonment of paroled convict Raymond L. S. Patriarca pending completion of the newly opened legislative probe of the so-called pardon and parole racket in Massachusetts was announced today.

Representative Roland D. Sawyer of Ware, a member of the pardon probe commission, said he would offer a resolution requesting Governor Saltonstall to withhold possible revocation of Patriarca's release.

FERRARI ON JOB

At the same time, the commission made public the appointment of Lieutenant Ferrari, veteran state police detective, in charge of outside investigation work.

Dissension in the commission over Patriarca's status seemed probable, as State Senator Jarvis Hunt, North Attleboro commission chairman, said he would oppose Representative Sawyer's resolution on the ground that advising the governor woul dbe outside the commission's province.

Freeing of Patriarca by Governor Hurley and his executive council was in large part responsible for the investigation.

The released convict had served only 84 days of two concurrent three-to-five-year state prison sentences for armed robbery. He is now in Miami, Fla.

SAYS PAROLE VIOLATED

Attorney General Paul A. Dever recently ruled Patriarca violated parole terms of his pardon by leaving the state, thus rendering himself liable to recommitment to prison.

Right hand man and long-time partner of Captain John Stokes, head of the state police detective bureau, Lieutenant Ferrari is one of New England's ace man-hunters and racket-busters.

Announcement today of his assignment to the job of directing undercover work for the pardon probe commission was generally regarded as an indication drastic tactics would be employed to uncover alleged political and cash-on-the-line connivance in freeing criminals.

The seven members of the commission planned to meet at the State House to complete their arrangements for opening of hearings.

On hand, ready to act as special prosecutor and legal adviser, was Attorney Samuel Hoar, of Concord, former Middlesex county district attorney.

Roosevelt May Visit Coast Fair in June

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP) The White House said today President Roosevelt would go to the Golden Gate Exposition at San Francisco next month if it appeared that Congress would not adjourn until late July or early August.

Stephen Early, press secretary, said that should the indications be that Congress would quit in early July the President probably would delay the transcontinental journey until after adjournment.

Auto Kills Bay State Man

PAWTUCKET, R. I., May 15 (AP)—A 49-year-old man, fatally injured when struck by an auto here early today, was identified eight hours after the accident as Joseph Kolenda of South Attleboro, a neighbor of the driver of the car which struck him.

Kolenda's daughter identified her father after she reported him missing.

SPELLMAN IN FINAL WEEK HERE

His last confirmation ceremony in the archdiocese of Boston over, Archbishop Francis J. Spellman today began his final week of labors here prior to his installation as head of the New York archdiocese.

That last episcopal act was performed in his Sacred Heart Church in Newton where he confirmed a record-breaking class of 235 boys and girls and 25 adults.

Tears were in his eyes as he stood before some 2000 of his parishioners to express his love for them.

Although Archbishop Spellman will deliver his final parting message Sunday, his parishioners thronged all masses yesterday, making contributions which wiped out the $7000 parish debt.

Tobin Vetoes Second Vendor Machine Bill

For the second time in two weeks Mayor Tobin has vetoed a City Council measure intended to curtail, or end the sale of cigarettes by vending machines.

Two weeks ago he vetoed a bill which would declare the selling of cigarettes by machines as illegal. Today he vetoed a second bill which would place a tax of $25 a year on each machine.

Blood for Mother

CHICAGO, May 15 (AP)—Mrs. Laura McCarty's Mother's Day gift was a blood transfusion, but in her own words it was "the finest Mother's Day gift a mother ever received." Six sons hurried to her bedside.

For several weeks Mrs. McCarty, 73-year-old Robinson, Ill., resident, has been in Mercy Hospital suffering from a malignant growth and Saturday doctors told her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Ryan of Salem, Ill., a blood transfusion seemed the only hope.

Although the six sons were absent from their homes in Robinson on business trips in nearby states they all responded to the call for help.

A pathologist's check revealed that one son, Harry E., could match his mother's blood type and a transfusion was ordered.

Physicians said she "seemed improved."

CELEBRATE MASS AT SHRINE

WASHINGTON, May 15 (INS)—The Spanish embassy announced that the Very Rev. Amleto Cicognani, Papal delegate, will celebrate mass in the embassy patio today to erase the reported profanation of a religious shrine there.

An altar has been placed below the shrine, a Mosaic image of the Virgin and child imbedded in the mall of the patio.

Spanish Ambassador Juan de Cardenas said he was informed the image had been concealed with cement or plaster during the tenure of his Loyalist predecessor, Fernando de Los Rios.

The ambassador said when he asked the Papal delegate's permission for the celebration of the mass, the delegate volunteered to officiate himself.

A congregation of about 50 has been invited to the service. They include officials of Catholic University of America, Georgetown University, representatives of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, and prominent Catholic laymen.

The cement covering had been removed before De Cardenas took over the embassy, but the image had faded, he said. He was informed, the ambassador said, that his predecessor had ordered the covering removed before he left the embassy following the success of the Franco revolution in Spain.

Snite Starts Trip To Shrine for 'Cure'

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., May 15 (AP)—Amid cries of "good luck, Fred," and "God be with you," Fred Snite, Jr., started a 12,000 mile journey in his iron lung that will lead to the shrine of miracles at Lourdes, France.

The handsome, 28-year-old infantile victim, whose life for more than three years has depended upon the constant functioning of a mechanical respirator, was placed aboard a special car.

Twice before upon leaving his father's winter estate here he issued a farewell message typical of his fortitude, but today he had nothing to say. Members of his party explained that he had written a letter which he expects to make public upon his arrival at the Pennsylvania Railway station in New York tomorrow at 5:15 p. m.

More than 100 persons were gathered to see the young man, first stricken March 31, 1936 in China while on a world tour, leave on his latest journey which will make his total travels in the breathing device about 27,000 miles.

Accompanying him were his parents, a physician, five nurses clad in new, light blue serge uniforms and overseas caps, a physiotherapist and two orderlies.

Fred's pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes has a two-fold purpose. Primarily, he seeks spiritual strengthening of his deeply religious philosophy, but his father, a Chicago small-loan financier, has hopes that "a divine Providence" will reward his son with some physical improvement.

"This is Fred's trip," the father said today. "He wanted to make it, so we arranged it. I hope he receives the inner satisfaction he seeks."

Harlan Mines Open; 3000 Pickets Halted

Inside the car and the incident was described as a "prank."

Guardsmen with machine guns turned back 3000 coal miners, en route to mines for picket duty. There were reports that motorcade cars were roaming through the country.

No coal will be brought from the mines until tomorrow or Wednesday, operators said. Those who wanted to work without a union contract were busy checking and registering for [illegible].

Operators in the Harlan field, where one man already has been killed and another wounded, refused to sign an agreement with the United Mine Workers last Saturday in New York when 15 other soft coal operating areas signed a union [illegible].

Today was the first time most of the mines had been open since work stopped April 1 at the start of negotiations on the contract.

MORE GUARDSMEN CALLED

The miners turned back by the guardsmen mused about the events of Harlan apparently waiting word from their [illegible].

Machine guns were set up throughout the county during the night. Machine guns were set up along the roadside and any effort of pickets to gather in large numbers brought quick orders to disperse.

Even before the test between operators and union miners [illegible] in this field, born for years by labor strife, the county again lived up to "Bloody Harlan."

Boston Summer Rooftop Season Opens

By GEORGE HOLLAND

ALTHOUGH the frost was nipping the asparagus, and was also on or near the strawberry patches in suburban centers of the state, the Boston summer season along the Rialto is, at last, definitely with us . . . Of course, if it rains tonight, our roof gardens and cabarets with sliding tops will be forced to conduct their programs of song and dance under such sheltering canvas or beaverboard coverings as they possess . . . But even if it rains, the managements are hopeful that an extraordinary night's handle is in sight . . . Each year when Suffolk Downs opens for the season the gross figures have been high . . . If a fair percentage of favorites pop down in front, incidentally, the trade is likely to be livelier . . .

LATEST OF the winter hotels to advertise a "roof" and a probable summer entertainer is the Crawford House . . . There's a new wrinkle in the Sunday spaghetti policy. In the past that has been static and its been closed in the summer . . . But in the past the Crawford House has had Nina Olivette . . . Nina, the dancing lassie . . . Nina, whose personal charm and long record of prominent places in the dance circuit line . . . Tonight a new show will make its bow at the Grove and Billy Payne and Newell and Semon continue as the usual complement of a strong drawing show . . .

THE MAYFAIR will introduce new personalities tonight . . . One, Howard Phillips is a handsome young man who has been chosen as emcee . . . Hailed to replace Ranny Weeks . . . Before he left New York rehearsing for his debut next Monday night with the International Casino show . . . Within a month your reporter predicts Ranny will have become a national pet by virtue of arrangements made with a radio chain or two to broadcast his manly voice and such quips as he may offer in presenting his band . . . Also within a month Boston will be enfolded in its comfortable bosom (also a prediction) the Weeks successor, Mr. Phillips . . . He is no novice . . .

Howard sang with Ray Noble's band for 18 months and your correspondent remembers being him three years ago as a stand-in to become an important bandman in Dollar Ranny's Sunset Room . . . Since then he has graduated on the way to the cup of success . . . The Phillips career starts a new phase now . . . Those who envy are Pat Barron Lawson, Mr. Phillips' successor . . . MISS CATHRINE CURTIS, national director of the Women Investigators in America, lodges opposition to the proposed transfer of foreign commerce and agricultural services to the State Department. She writes twenty-one Senators and eight Representatives that —

CATHRINE CURTIS

'American women realize secret trade pacts mean secret alliances and often lead to wars . . . Subordinating our foreign commerce to diplomatic relations can only serve to advance the cause of internationalism and center our attention on problems of other nations . . . And it will further divert us from our own problems which must be solved immediately if we are to avoid national bankruptcy and a change in our constitutional form of government."

This was substantially the thought of Congressman Lewis D. Thill of Wisconsin who, pledging himself to work with Representative Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts for the restoration of peace, also said:

'Nobody has to be told that the Administration's trade-treaty program has failed to bring about peace.

"Since the inauguration of the reciprocal idea we have seen bloody civil war over in Spain, a cruel, hard-fought war in China, the Conquest of Abyssinia, and the destruction of the Republic of Czechoslovakia.

"And at the present time all the leading countries on the face of the globe are speeding the production of arms and munitions. More airplanes, more battleships is the cry — for war is imminent."

THE NEW ELECTION LAW, signed Friday by Governor Saltonstall, not only ordinarily eliminates the Communist, Socialist, Socialist Labor and Prohibition parties so far as the Massachusetts ballot is concerned, but also directs public attention to the poor showing these organizations have made in the past.

In the gubernatorial election of November the Communists polled less than [illegible] votes (approximately 5000); the Socialist Labor party and the Prohibitionists a scarce 2000).

Their weakness was even more apparent in the 1936 Presidential election. When Roosevelt, the Democrat, received 942,716 votes in the state and Alfred M. Landon, Republican nominee, 760,813, the Communists garnered a pitiful 2930, and the Socialists a slightly more respectable 5111.

Later a special committee of the United States Senate investigated the campaign funds raised by the various parties and reported that each vote cast for Communism's $3.27 $2.94 more than a vote cast for the Democrats and $7.42 more than the Republicans.

Massachusetts requires independent candidates for State offices to file nomination papers signed by 3 per cent of the major gubernatorial vote cast in the preceding election, following the example of many other states which have taken drastic steps in recent years to bar from their ballots minor political groups and parties so obviously lacking in popular support that their defeat at the polls is a foregone conclusion.

Only [illegible] per cent of the last vote for Governor; Oregon, 7 per cent of the [illegible] vote; Wyoming, 10 per cent of the vote for Governor; North Carolina, 10,000 signers; and North Dakota, 1500.

Florida, for instance, [illegible] per cent, insists on a number equal to [illegible] per cent of the vote in the previous general election.

If You Want Peace, Write to Congress

WRITE YOUR CONGRESSMAN and Senators and ask them to support legislation to keep America firmly to the American policy of peace . . . to urge them to avoid entangling alliances with any foreign nations . . . to ask them to keep America properly free from foreign conflicts, and to support legislation embodying the sentiment opposing the war-making power of this nation in the hands of the people of America, so that they must make the sacrifice of blood and treasure to war the war and not that they would lose their sons for the profit of the war-mongers.

Ask your Congressmen and Senators to give the people of America the right to make war as the right to preserve the peace of America.

THEY HAD to shoo away swarms of photographers when the Queen arrived among them a big amiable flat-faced body-snatcher who used to amble around with a huge camera the size of an orange crate, and who seemed to wander innocently into the thick of everything from a gang war to a [illegible] grand jury session. He departed with the others, but before the luncheon started, was seen strolling around the block.

The preliminaries went off beautifully in the city's most gorgeous dining hall, with just the proper disposal of orchids and other exotic blooms in which San Francisco excels. No gaucheries marred the exquisite perfection of the smoothly-routined function.

The hostesses, most of them in Paris gowns, stood at the [illegible] for the Queen to arrive. In this brief instant of silence as the Queen smiled graciously there was an interruption.

In the mezzanine, between two velour drapes stood the big, baggy photographer with his huge camera. His voice crashed into the decorous hush of the moment with startling impact.

"Hold that a minute, will yuh, Queen—gimme that smile again, will yuh—Great!—BANG!" He shot a couple of pounds of flash-powder and great waves of acrid white smoke billowed down over Queen and commoners.

THEY DID everything but call out the militia to surround him, but he strolled out guiltlessly through a side door and delivered his negative.

Persons shocked by the above story will be relieved to learn that his paper refused to print the picture almost dropped him out a five story window, and sent apologies to all and sundry.

Girl About Town -:- by MARY X. SULLIVAN

MONA AND LILLIAN BENTON have more fun than a little. These dark-haired [illegible] sisters are [illegible] like that — scares you.

All through school in Dorchester they confused their teachers hopelessly. And now it can be told that Mona, who got good at math, often served as a pinch hitter for Lillian in exams.

The girls insist that since they were babies they've been trying to be professional twins. The [illegible] talking twins [illegible] several Boston [illegible] as harmonizing singers.

DORCHESTER TWINS BAFFLE THEIR BOY FRIENDS
Mona and Lillian Benton Plan Twin Careers

All their kin are twins and their wardrobe consists of [illegible] prayer a little [illegible] for boys only, since if Mona gets a prom will Lillian and vice versa Lillian went [illegible] alone.

"I felt as if I had left my right arm at home," she said. "We might as well be siamese."

BEFORE they got [illegible] with an O'Neil from Dorchester [illegible] home here on the point [illegible] Six of them, all headed home [illegible] peace. Thomas [illegible] a veteran member and [illegible] Frederick and Thomas [illegible] their boys and two sons, Charles and John. The younger men have graduated [illegible] who may [illegible] in the [illegible] division.

HAMBURGING in a one arm joint the other night, when a solitary customer asked our neighbor to pass the salt. He did.

"Sir, may I shake your hand," said our neighbor solemnly. "You are the first man I ever met who, when asked to pass the salt, did not also pass the peppe:"

Political Parade -:- by GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN

WASHINGTON May 15 — My Country "is of thee." About the time the Marine band was being [illegible] Portland Oregonia [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] was opening in Washington with [illegible] brought [illegible] of the cynical.

One of the most [illegible] paragraphs in the prize-winning list of editorial writing was the following:

"In this land of ours, this America, there is no tramp of military boots to entertain the visiting statesman. There is no effort to affright him with display of mobile cannon or of facility for mass production of aerial bombers."

Oh, yeah! Well, as the people were digesting the above quotation, President Roosevelt was welcoming the President of Mexico to Washington, with [illegible] impressive display of military might that country ever [illegible] Like a "vanishing stairway" or a vanishing fireman, I'm told that's it.

PRESIDENT SOMOZA
Washington Way Chilly

NOTHING LIKE that military reception to President Somoza had ever before been witnessed in our town. Solid rows of troops, shoulder to shoulder, along Pennsylvania Avenue for [illegible] and a half from Union station to the White House. The two Presidents escorted along the great Appian Way of the Republic by troops and rumbling tanks bristling with guns. Overhead a squadron of 30 bombers.

The best paragraph in the prize-winning editorial had been knocked into a cocked hat before the ink was fairly dry on the Pulitzer award.

How was this received by the populace? In a cold, stony silence, glacial in its frigidity. There was virtually no applause, as the two Presidents rode along in the midst of the soldiery.

And this notwithstanding the fact that the adjacent government departments had been emptied of their clerks and stenographers—by official order, in order that a grateful proletariat might give evidence of their hot delight in welcoming the Nicaraguan man on horseback.

The proletarians were there in vast numbers, but they were too stunned to cheer.

WASHINGTON has long been used to parades, as I've pointed out. But this was no parade in the American tradition. It was a cold, calculated demonstration of armed might.

It was a mad display in the piece of war propaganda. But it didn't go over. The people were shocked. Mr. Roosevelt himself must have been chagrined by the lack of enthusiasm for his glittering show of the mailed fist. No "tramp of military boots," forsooth! Those tanks would have drowned out 20,000 pairs of boots.

Ideal Frock For Sports

By ANNICE BRINK

GOING to the Memorial Day Horse Show in Dedham? And the Jacobs Hill Hunt Show? Or perhaps you just never miss a week-end in the country. Then this is the kind of frock you should have in numbers, in every becoming color, and most certainly in white.

It's perfect under tweed coats, jaggers, sugar jackets or reefers.

Though it is perfect for the non-athletic lounger it has "free action" sleeves so you can swing your arms in a wide follow through without disturbing the lines of the frock or having it hitch at a single point.

One of these interesting celanese rayon weaves, a oxford crepe, a well tested crease, sponging and fading beyond all expectations.

And of course the colors are luscious as ever and shades in keeping with all the other natural fabrics this spring. In sizes 14 to 20 years, 16 to 18 and 36 to 40.

FOR SHOPPING information on this sports frock, phone Annice Brink Fashion Helper, LIBerty 4000 week days until 6 p. m. or write.

CHAPTER ONE

DAY was very lonely in the high room of the strange hotel in the big city where she knew nobody.

A threatening rain fell as if with the sheer purpose of terrifying her.

She had come on risk herself: no one had asked her to come back to London: and until yesterday she had not even confessed her misery and distress. On her own initiative—and between noon yesterday she had decided on this thing

Well-groomed and yet cheap, he was a professional hanger-on

OPENING TOMORROW NIGHT

HUNTINGTON CHAMBERLAIN HALL "Lucrece," seventh production since its establishment at the Pemberton square address a year ago, will be presented tomorrow, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights by the New England Repertory Theatre group, with Erwin Burt Ledel directing. The Lucrece Morgan production marks the first party of the first production.

CONTINUING

WILBUR "The White Steed," Paul Vincent Carroll's New York Drama Critics' Award play with Barry Fitzgerald in the starring role of the wise and deeply human Canon Lavelle, continues here.

The author of "Shadow and Substance" again has chosen Ireland and the Roman Catholic clergy to write about, but where his first play had a maiden as the heroine, a half-pint curate and a fairy tale background, this play is a comedy.

George Cukor has assigned Norma Shearer to the role of Mary Ward, Clarke character which was suggested by Anne Blackburn, story of the nineteenth century mother of the Irish Jesuits. Fredric March plays Lord Melbourne, Miss Shearer's husband. Ann Harding plays Queen Victoria, Herbert Marshall

Wild Whirligig Begins at Suffolk

BUST THE BABY'S PIG-BANK! Shout the glad tidings. Search the sock for winter savings! Raid the wife's tea-pot for hoarded dimes! Race Day is here!

AUSTEN LAKE.

Twelve hundred gambling steeds are quartered in horseville abaft East Boston's oil tanks for this afternoon's gala beginning of the annual race psychosis.

Race life at Suffolk Downs began this morning at 5 a. m. during the early hours of uplift. No other scene is like it. Pet roosters craned rubbery necks and scolded the new day on tiptoe. Stable mutts frisked their hides for fleas. The leprachauns and pixy people of the barns hooked last night's hay from their ears and cussed drowsily over the chamber work, forking out stall sweepings and breakfasting their beasts on bundled carrot tops, dry cereals and tap water. But this afternoon, the big glass ark, the concrete apron and the terraced slopes are crowded with form scholars, polychromed females—some tawdry; male peacocks—some seamy! What do they know about the horses or the little cricket men on their backs with their ballooning silks? Yonder fellow, stuffing his $6 through the pari-mutuel wicket? He knows his dobbin was second last time out; that it won once at Narragansett and was in the pay-off a couple of times at Hialeah. It had no record at Havre de Grace.

The horse had a chest rumble at Havre. But the bettor doesn't know that, or anything about the fretful moments it gave its owner, nor the dosages from brown bottles the veterinaries fed it before its croupy wheeze dwindled. That isn't in the record book! All yonder knows is what he reads in the little hieroglyphs of the form chart. It looks like a good spot and the price seems right. So he buys it across the board and whimpers bitterly when it finishes out of the money. Maybe he says, "Wutta dog! He figured a dead snap. The jock rode him like a roller-coaster."

NO GROUP OF PEOPLE TAKE THEIR SPORT with such simple faith and ratio a courage as the horse ady. Mr. and Mrs. Two Bucks. A few more money temporarily, but the great mass lose permanently. The ... reward, a heart fluttery, feeling of fuzz on the tongue, the ... players and a continual quest to win themselves back to even.

We'll ... the people ... Saturday ... and theirs to take or let alone.

WIND CHILLS FANS AS SUFFOLK OPENS

By JACK CONWAY

SUFFOLK DOWNS, May 15. With a cold east wind sweeping across the track, the thoroughbreds returned to Massachusetts with a 60-day meeting.

HAPPY RACING DAYS are here again as the thoroughbreds return to our back yard. The bangtails come roaring into the stretch once again today, at Suffolk Downs and will continue through 60 racing days. Has anybody got a hot tip?

Delay Out

There will not be any unnecessary post delays at the Suffolk Downs meeting opening today as a result of orders from the Massachusetts Racing Commission and the track stewards.

Those persons in charge of racing in Massachusetts feel that long drawn out post parades injure the chances of the favorites winning and also try the patience of the betting public. An effort will be made to run off all races at Suffolk Downs on time.

This should be good news to the public.

The suggestion that Joe Cronin quit as manager of the Red Sox has drawn heavy fire from C. R. Ivers of No. 80 Oak street, Hyde Park. Ivers contends Cronin is a first class manager even though he has been in a batting slump.

Challedon Wins Week Too Late | Harvard Crew In Big Test

I PICKED Challedon to win one week too early . . . Johnstown, of course, was the form horse for both the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness . . . In the Derby, I named Calledon to finish first in the expectation the race would be run on a muddy track . . . When the track was fast, Johnstown lost his field . . . Running on a muddy track in the Preakness, Johnstown finished fifth and Challedon, a tried mudder, came down in front.

The $71,344 Preakness purse couldn't have been hard for Owner W. L. Brann to take . . . Especially after the disappointment he experienced when Challedon was outclassed by Johnstown in the Derby . . . Bill McAuley, Daily Record handicapper, like myself, went for Challedon in the Derby only to go back to Johnstown in the Preakness . . . Bill, of course, used excellent judgment in his Preakness selection . . . If the track had been fast, Johnstown would have won by himself . . . It is such upsets as the one that occurred in the Preakness that makes horse racing interesting.

Now that racing has returned to Suffolk Downs you will have an opportunity to try to call winners at close range . . . Sixty days of racing with eight race programs mean 480 races . . . We all should come up with a few winners with that many chances at 52 a throw.

Harvard Crew Meets Real Test

TOM BOLLES' Harvard crew will receive a severe test on Saturday when it races Columbia, Pennsylvania and the Navy on the Charles . . . Bolles looks for the most serious competition from the Navy . . . Tom told members of the Harvard Varsity Club that he expects the Navy to have its finest strength when it opposes Harvard.

Harvard has one of the most powerful college crews in the country . . . It has improved steadily, and should be going on high in its big race on Saturday . . . Thousands of people will line the banks of the Charles to see the sons of Harvard in action against Columbia, Pennsylvania and the Navy.

It is reported Sam Simons has acquired a big block of stock in Rockingham Park . . . Sam has been active in the affairs of Rockingham Park since legalized betting has been held there . . . He has been an important factor in winning friends for racing in New Hampshire.

Mickey Cochrane Must Be Smiling

MICKEY COCHRANE must be smiling as the Detroit Tigers have made their latest sweeping trade following the crack-up of the club . . . Cochrane has felt he was given a raw deal by the Detroit management.

"I gave the Tigers my best and found it didn't work," Mickey told me at the baseball writers' dinner last winter.

The removal of Cochrane as manager has not helped the Detroit baseball situation . . . The club has made a miserable showing this year, and does not appear to be going anywhere . . . Detroit gave St. Louis Pitchers Vernon Kennedy, Roxie Lawson and George Gill, and Outfielders Chester Laabs and Mark Christman, for Pitchers Louis (Buck) Newsome and Jim Walkup, and Outfielder Roy Bell and Infielder Ralph Kress . . . The managements of the Tigers believes that the new blood will help snap the club out of its present slump.

Detroit is one of the best baseball towns in the country . . . Its Sunday games are usually sellouts . . . Baseball interest, of course, has fallen off in Detroit as the Tigers have done a nose dive . . . The Detroit management is making desperate efforts to reverse the downward trend, but is merely hoping it will be successful in its efforts.

In his heart, Cochrane probably believes that the chief trouble with the Tigers is in the front office . . . Baseball has as many secondguessers as there are in other sports . . . This is the reason for the numerous changes of managers in recent years.

As pointed out in this column, Cleveland fans are demanding the scalp of Oscar Vitt . . . A manager who cannot produce a first division club over-night does not get much consideration from the fans or club owners . . . With a great scarcity of ball players, it is difficult for even those clubs with ample funds to get the desired players . . . Take a peek at the minor league lineups, and you will find discarded veterans of the major leagues starring . . . Baseball is in need of young blood.

Random Shots at Target

BILL CONN will be the next heavyweight champion of the world, according to Louis Rose, Boston boxing fan . . . Conn once more prove his fistic ability when he won from Solly Krieger . . . Conn only weighs 170 pounds, but should keep packing on weight for two more years.

Challedon May Race In Britain Next Year

NEW YORK, May 15 (AP)—Death cheated Challenger II out of his chance for the Ascot Gold Cup back there in 1928, but the famous sire of bluebloods may have his revenge next year with his gallant son, the mud flier, Challendon.

International News Photograph Service.

As the result of his victory in the Preakness Saturday, owner W. L. Brann is thinking of taking Challedon to England this fall to prepare him for the 2½-mile classic in June of 1940.

He has spoken in the past of making the trip as William Woodward did with Omaha in 1935, and after "Pete's" brilliant victory Saturday, in which he exploded the myth of invincibility around Johnstown, Brann said to a friend with whom he has discussed the idea:

"Well, how about taking him over there now?"

Challedon, Brann points out, as a four-year-old will have nothing to keep him in this country, so I may do it."

BRANNCASTLE

If he does it will be the last chapter in the story book biography of Challenger II, sire of the mud-running, stretch-breezing youngster who looked Johnstown, as well as the four others in the Preakness field, in the eye and made them all eat the mud he kicked up over Pimlico's race course.

This saga dates back to 1928, when Brann and R. J. Castle formed their Branncastle breeding farm partnership, now dissolved.

For sure, Brann, born in Indiana across the river from Louisville, had wanted a Kentucky Derby starter. So he and Castle commissioned R. J. Fitzgerald to look up any possibilities in England.

Lord Dewar, who had nominated Challenger II for the English Derby and the Gold Cup, died before the races could be run and under an old rule in England the nominations were tossed out upon the nominator's death.

So Challenger III was cheated out of his chances, and Fitzgerald was able to buy the colt from Lord Dewar's son.

"This challenger," Brann tells you, "was the best horse the English ever let get away from them."

When he reached this country, Challenger turned in some amazing workouts. In training he did mile after mile under 1:40. But an ankle went bad and he was sent to Branncastle Farm at Frederick, Md.

ARLINGTON NEXT

Then in 1923 Brann saw a mare at the Saratoga sales he believed would be the ideal type to breed to Challenger. She was Laura Gal, by Sir Gallahad III.

Where Challenger was compact, she was big and rangy. So Brann bought the mare for $2000. Challedon was the third and last foal of the pair.

Their most famous son, although he was beaten by Johnstown in the derby, now gives promise of fulfilling Brann's ambitions. He revenged himself in the preakness Saturday while 30,000 gaked spectators looked on as "Big John" came in a dismal fifth.

HOLLYWOOD SKATERS NOW ON TOP IN DERBY

With a victory almost in their grasp in the final minutes of the last "open house," the Boston White Shirts were defeated in the Roller Derby at the Boston Arena by the Hollywood All Stars when Captain Fuzzy Pierz of the Beantown group, carrying the treasured green flag, was forced to the rail of the track by Captain Joe Evans of the Eleanor Powell group.

Red Willis, teammate of Evans, speeded through and scored two extra points to give the All-Stars their fourth victory in seven nights of racing by the score of 17-14.

At the end of the first half the score stood at six all. Captain Jayne Cummings and Hazel Love of the Boston outfit had assisted in marking up digits for their team while Pierz accounted for three more points. Kay Carney, a natural on the track, made certain Hollywood marked up three more and Russ Baker did likewise in his own behalf.

Close to 5000 spectators cheered Pierz time after time as he broke through the opposing Red Shirts to stop movie colony "jams." Both he and his rival, Joe Evans, showed hard and efficient blocking all night while Willis who clinched the Hollywood victory, displayed some of the rougher tactics of Roller Derby. Willis, a fast skater from Miami Beach, spent some of the evening in the penalty box as did Jayne Cummings, the 92 pounds of fighting Irish dynamite.

Girls wishing to enter Roller Derby, it was announced, will be given trials this afternoon at the Arena at 1:30 o'clock, the new aspirants must be 18 years of age, according to the Derby officials.

Racing will continue tonight at the Arena and ladies will be admitted free of charge. Present standings: Hollywood, four games; Boston, three games.

FEAR ARMSTRONG WILL LOSE TITLE IN BRITISH BOUT

By the Associated Press

The wolves are howling on the doorsteps of Francis Schmidt of Ohio State, Del Baker of Detroit and Oscar Vitt of Cleveland.

Billy Conn will be brought back here for a July fight against either Melio Bettina or Fred Apostoli . . . The Portland ball team certainly looked good charging that one-armed umpire on the Pacific Coast the other day . . . Real feud in the National League is between Doc Prothro and Charlie Dressen. What those guys are saying about each other can't be printed in this album of song.

Bill McKechnie

The fellow who umpired that game out at Wichita the other day between the Shriners and Knights of Columbus for a trophy offered by a Jewish merchant was named Paul Fair.

If Jolly Krieger fights Al Hostak like he did Billy Conn, he'll leave his N. B. A. middleweight title on the coast sure as shooting . . . Also Henry Armstrong hasn't a chance to bring his welterweight crown back from England if he hits low against Ernie Roderick. Armstrong, the most unorthodox fighter since Harry Greb, throws punches from all angles and often lands in prohibited territory. The English are strict about that . . . Connie Mack says night baseball will be accepted throughout the major leagues within three years . . . Helen Wills Moody will call her mystery story, "Death Serves an Ace."

JIMMY WOOD, BROOKLYN EAGLE: "What is the answer to the surprising success of our Dodgers and their stand in the National League at this writing? It can't be that breakfast food smothered in gasoline, alone."

WHAT THEY SAY: Bill McKechnie: "We're pretty good now but we're going to get a lot better . . . Harney Ross: "I can't get over the thrill of realizing I'm finally out of and done with boxing" . . . Bill Terry: "This is a screwball race, so don't be surprised if I say that of all the teams the Phils have looked the best" . . . Fred Perry: "I didn't go to England (with Budge) because I wanted to go to Hollywood to see Helen Vinson."

Charlie Brooks, New London (Conn.) golf pro, is the eldest in a family of 13 children . . . He began his golf career as an apprentice at the age of 13 . . . He has built 13 golf courses and now is beginning his 13th year on his 13th course.

Columbia vs. Princeton here Wednesday will be the first baseball game covered by television . . . Jack Kearns is trying to get reinstated as a fight manager in Illinois . . . Monty Stratton sent "appreciation cards" to all who wrote him about his accident . . . Bergen County, N. J., has come up with a two-year-old roller skating star who can do figure skating steps at an age when most kids can hardly walk.

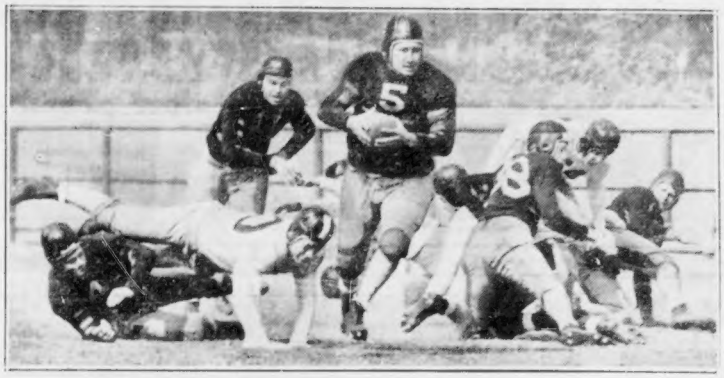
So this morning life at Suffolk stirred resentfully with sleepy light bulbs blinking in heavily-lidded half lights. Maytime's seaboard airs were sharp with harness smells and the commingled odors of ammonia, resin and stale seepage. Itinerant farriers made tinkling taps on portable anvils, measuring sleek steeds with silvery slivers frail as a politician's promise.

Life began in the deep chill of morning. Lean hostlers came out barking cigarette coughs, stripped quilts and leg bandages off their animals and strapped on saddles shaped like the halves of split, salt herring. Stable swipes, little larger than monkeys, climbed up and sat with their knees hugged under their chins—pinch-faced crickets with the light of hardship in their eyes, schoolboys with girlish trebles, underbred adults who have starved themselves to undersize. The world in grotesque.

So the day advances from dawn's silvery light to mid-morning's gold and late afternoon's brass. By the leaden cool of evening the day's illusion will be over and the race horde will wander home in the gloaming, a little lighter in pocket and a little heavier in heart.



RUSHING. Not only the season is Bill Overlin rushing but for a touchdown as well as U. C. L. A. gridders stage practice game. Big hole opened by Kvitky (4) on ground. Sommers (11) and MacPherson, Kinney (10) blocked by Kvitky, is inches short of a tackle. The game was won by Coach Babe Horrell's regulars, the Blues, 25 to 7, over the Whites. Leo Canlor, freshman fullback, scored two Blue touchdowns.

Collegians to Start Most Active Week Of Spring Season

College sports swing into the final lap of spring activity this coming week as the curtain draws near on the conclusion of another school year.

Harvard faces the busiest week of all the local colleges. In baseball, the nine which is now leading the Eastern Inter-Collegiate League, meets Northeastern Tuesday, Pennsylvania Friday and travels to Worcester Saturday, to oppose Holy Cross.

The Crimson trackmen, fresh from routing Yale, return to New Haven Saturday, for the annual Heptagonal meet and stand an excellent chance of coming home on top. With such outstanding men as George Downing, Bill Shallow, Jim Lightbody, Torbie Macdonald and a host of others, the outlook is great.

In crew, Harvard's undefeated varsity shell faces its first real test of the year on the Charles, Saturday, in a regatta against Navy, Columbia and Pennsylvania. The Midshipmen, with a brilliant crew loom as a real obstacle in the Harvard water path.

B. U. WINDS UP

Turning to other colleges we find that Boston University concludes its college sport year this week with final examinations beginning one week from today. The Terrier nine has three games on tap for a windup. Tomorrow, they play host to Dartmouth at Nickerson Field. Friday, they move to Worcester to oppose Clark and Saturday, they finish up with Tufts at Medford.

The Terriers due to a very late start, got off slowly but have taken three out of their last four affairs, including a win over Boston College, and are now rolling in high. A triumph over Dartmouth tomorrow would make the season successful.

B. C. vs. VILLANOVA

Boston College after a disappointing loss to Fordham at Cooperstown, N. Y., Saturday will try to get off on the right foot against Villanova at the Heights today. It is expected that Doc Jacobs, the Villanova coach, will send Cliff Choquette, a southpaw who hails from Newton, to the hill today.

This Villanova affair plus a home and home series with Providence makes up the week for the Eagles. The Friars are here Wednesday and at home Saturday.

Tufts should see plenty of baseball action this week by going to Holy Cross, Tuesday, entertaining Williams at home on Wednesday and playing host to Boston University Saturday.

Northeastern after its Harvard game Tuesday will head for Maine Friday morning to meet Colby at Waterville that afternoon and Maine at Orono on Saturday.

Illinois Riflemen Win Hearst Trophy

Special to Boston Evening American

CHICAGO, May 15—With more than 3000 spectators lining the parade ground at the University of Illinois, the William Randolph Hearst rifle shoot trophy was presented to school officials.

It was the fourth time in four consecutive years that the Illini sharpshooters had won the coveted prize, demonstrating the supremacy of the university's R. O. T. C. rifle unit in competition with other senior units in the Sixth Corps area.

Speaking as a member of the trophy committee, C. L. Gould delivered a message from Mr. Hearst, in part as follows:

"The object of the annual rifle shoot is to make skillful marksmen of as many young men as possible and so contribute in an important manner toward the defense of the country through an efficient citizen soldiery.

"None of all the people in America wants war, but some have the vision to see that war may be forced upon us, and they have the patriotism to prepare for that emergency."

Marksmanship medals were presented to Capt. Frank J. Rasmussen, Sergt. Craig E. Lewis, Lieut. Nick Pokrajac, Second Lieut. T. O. Lively and Private Paul F. Lawson.

Col. Fred R. Brown, officer in charge; Fred H. Turner, dean of men, and Maj. James D. Brown took part in the ceremony.

Red Sox End Road Trip At Capital

before Robert Moses could pull out his verdict.

They were trailing 2-0 going into the seventh when a walk to Desautels, a Roger Cramer double and a Jimmy Foxx single tied up the issue.

It was ding-dong into the 12th, both Grove and his rookie rival, Alex Alexandria, who was making his first start of his major league career, holding on grimly.

But in the 12th the Sox started a hitting spree, touched off by Jimmy Tabor who connected for his fourth hit of the afternoon, a single. Bobby Doerr doubled him home and Desautels doubled Doerr home. Grove fanned and then Cramer doubled to right center to shoot Desautels along with what turned out to be the winning run.

For the Nats came within a hairbreadth of lifting it in their half of the twelfth, scoring two runs, with Jack Wilson relieving Grove and then being replaced in turn by Joe Heving who with the tieing and winning runs on the bases forced Buddy Myer to hit to Doerr at second, Bobby making the final play on Buddy at first.

The Sox arrive home early tomorrow morning and meet with the western clubs. They will be at Fenway Park until Memorial Day, after which they once again hit out for the hinterlands.

Tech Wins Boston Dinghy Regatta

The Dinghy crews of Massachusetts Institute of Technology successfully defended its Boston Dinghy Intercollegiate Challenge Cup on the Charles River.

The Engineers defeated Brown University, 123½ to 121, in one of the closest regattas in the history of intercollegiate racing.

Other scores were Princeton, 108; Harvard, 101½; Michigan, 97; Williams, 91; Northeastern and Dartmouth, 87.

NIX ON THAT, GIRLIE!

Wait a Minute!—When a shapely damosel wins a beauty contest her kisses, particularly those presented voluntarily, are generally something to be sought. But Mayor Stanton of North Sydney, Australia, has his own ideas about promiscuous affection. Here he wards off Joyce Freeman, beauty cup and all, as she attempts to bestow chaste salute in appreciation of her victory.

Bruises they suffered when knocked down by a car on Washington street, Somerville, are displayed here by Alva Spezzafero, 14, Eleanor Gianetti, 12, and Ida Spezzafero, 16. Father of Spezzafero sisters was also injured. He was taken to hospital.

It's Swell to be home, Mom! Arthur R. Marshall, 14-year-old church choir singer, of Poplar street, Malden, missing nearly a week, smiles his joy at Mother's Day reunion. Arthur was found on Epping, N. H., chicken farm. He didn't know just why he ran away, but it was awful good to be home again!
